

NRA ACTION PISTOL MATCH – July 2010

JULY 2010 NRA ACTION PISTOL (Sholar Powell): We had 8 shooters show up for the July match, with a new shooter in the person of Matt Warrick giving AP a whirl. Ray C. was having a bad back day (something to do with moving a couch), but he came and ran the Mover for us. When is summer going to get here? Closest comparison I can think of is having a match on the surface of the sun, and BGC was about that hot Sunday. Wilt Deets has some nice holsters he's making, and brought a few of them for show. Look Wilt up if you're interested in a good concealed carry holster. Lon Layton is healing pretty good, and dropped by to shoot the breeze with us. He expects to be back on the firing line in the not too distant future. We had the 'usual suspects' show for the match, and some nice scores were fired. Roland Russ will be moving up to Expert class next match based on his scores. Come out and shoot Action Pistol...all you need is a holster (see Wilt) and ammo. And IDPA will be shot on the third Sunday of August. Scores for the July match as follows:
