

Buccaneer Gun Club - NRA Action Pistol October 2010

OCTOBER NRA ACTION PISTOL MATCH (Sholar Powell): This was our last match of the year and we had a fine turnout, considering that a fund-raising shoot for Ilario Pantano was in progress at Ant Hill. Missed Ray and Lon, but they were shooting for a good cause...and get out and vote on Nov. 2 if you haven't already. We need to change the face of the present Congress, both to protect our gun rights, and slow the drunken-sailor spending that's taking place under the current regime. We had a feed of grilled venison & dip, Southern potato salad, and Amanda Hill's chocolate brownies, which everyone seemed to enjoy; and no one walked away hungry. Nine shooters flailed the Plates and the Mover, and all had a good time. We even had a "Mystical Mathemagical Shootoff with Roland & Nick. Somehow, word got out they were tied on the plates.....so we all gathered up for the shootoff, and watched Roland walk away with it. But upon further review, Nick had a higher score in the regular match than Roland, so he was the winner....but wait, Don P. shoots in the same class and he beat both of them. Oh well, good entertainment, and all enjoyed. We'll see you again for AP in April 2011...don't forget that IDPA shoots through the winter, and they are good matches to participate in. Here are the scores for October.
