

SEPTEMBER ACTION PISTOL MATCH (Sholar Powell, Jr.): Woke up to rain Sunday morning and figured the match would be rained out, so I left home with no guns intending to just work on the Mover. But it let off early, and we ended up with a good turnout. Ray had left the house and forgotten his nametag, but even with the return trip to pick it up, he got there in plenty of time to shoot and serve as Range Officer. With Russ Miller now retired from the US Army, we hope to extend the season on Action Pistol, and carry it past the normal October end date. Russ has agreed to act as Director for matches in the winter. More to follow on that later this year. Had a first time shooter this month with Charlie White and hope he shows up again. Good to see all the 'usual suspects' again this month, and hope to see all again in October. Scores from this match as follows:
