LOCAL FRIENDS OF NRA EVENT ONE OF BEST EVER

Hey Guys and Gal.....I just got an email from the NRA field rep David Wells telling me that it appears that this year's Friends Event is going to net more money than any event we've ever had.....Preliminarily it looks like our net may be between $25-30,000.....Last year's event grossed around $48,000 and this year looks to be over $60,000.....

Attendance appeared to be down some or it may have been because I had expectations of filling up every seat so I set up for over 450 people..... I think the net is going to be high for several reasons.....Club members and others were very generous with gun donations and also cash and merchandise contributions..... We had some really neat stuff on the silent auction and almost all of it was donated.....We also had some small games you could play for $10 or $20 and those, with help of Buccaneer volunteers running them, did very well..... Also, the live auction actually set new records for some of the items.....I also have to give some credit to the ticket ladies who also did very well.

There were a bunch of kids at this year's event and they all had a great time and also got plenty to eat. The North Brunswick JROTC looked really sharp when presenting the colors and the National Anthem sung by Ashley Davis of Southport brought tears to my eyes.

Jeff Desantis, (who by the way won a Remington 1911 45ACP) thought the NRA neon lighted clock would look good in the Buccaneer clubhouse so I had him bidding for the clock against three other people until the price got so high that I thought I might be removed as president if we won it, so I had to let it go. I later talked to the winner of the clock, Sean York of Southport, he had decided that it was going to his house no matter what it cost.....

I can't say thank you enough to the volunteers, committee members, donors, sponsors, and attendees who helped make this year's event a success.....Thanks again....Ray

5 STAND CLAYS RANGE OPEN

The Club now has a 5-stand clay shooting range open on Wednesday's at 5:00 PM and Sunday mornings (9:00 AM until?) . If you have not shot it you should come out and give it a try. It features crossing, outgoing and incoming targets as well as a spring teal (a target that goes straight up) and a rabbit (a target that rolls across the field). It consists of 5 stations from which 5 targets are shot for a total of 25 targets. Just log the number of rounds you shoot in your skeet account book.

The Club has decided to open this venue only at specific times by a few members who are trained to operate the equipment and explain the shooting order. Members are not supposed to open it on their own for now. If another time would be convenient please email the club Secretary and we will try to accommodate that time.

BUCCANEER RANGE REGULATOR GAZETTE

May 1897

Headline: Dick Holliday's German Shepherd Is Just As Cunning As His Owner

One day Dick Holliday's old German shepherd starts chasing rabbits and before long, discovers that he's lost. Wandering about, he notices a panther heading rapidly in his direction with the intention of having lunch.

The old German Shepherd thinks, "Oh, oh! I'm in deep s now!"

Noticing some bones on the ground close by, he immediately settles down to chew on the bones with his back to the approaching cat. Just as the panther is about to leap, the old German Shepherd exclaims loudly, "Boy, that was one delicious panther! I wonder, if there are any more around here?"

Hearing this, the young panther halts his attack in mid-strike, a look of terror comes over him and he slinks away into the trees.

"Whew!" says the panther, "That was close! That old German Shepherd nearly had me!"

Meanwhile, a squirrel who had been watching the whole scene from a nearby tree, figures he can put this knowledge to good use and trade it for protection from the panther. So, off he goes.

The squirrel soon catches up with the panther, spills the beans and strikes a deal for himself with the panther.

The young panther is furious at being made a fool of and says, "Here, squirrel, hop on my back and see what's going to happen to that conniving canine!"

Now, the old German Shepherd sees the panther coming with the squirrel on his back and thinks, "What am I going to do now?" but instead of running, the dog sits down with his back to his attackers, pretending he hasn't seen them yet, and just when they get close enough to hear, the old German Shepherd says...

"Where's that squirrel? I sent him off an hour ago to bring me another panther!"

Moral of this story...

Don't mess with the old dogs... Old age and treachery will always overcome youth and skill! BS and brilliance only come with age and experience.
