Headline: Bar Room Spitting Contest Interrupted By Gunfight

You know how it goes....when cowboys get together they will always be comparing to see who has the longest.....gunbarrel.....or who can shoot the straightest, or who can throw a knife the best, or something. Well at the Hard Times saloon last month the subject came up on who could spit the straightest. This reporter thinks the subject was brought to the forefront when Doc Clock spit a plug of tobacco at the spittoon and happened to get more tobacco on Blacksmith's boots than he got in the spittoon.....The short tempered Black Smith went for his 45 but before he could draw Sheriff Holliday grabbed his gun hand (That Sheriff really has fast reflexes).....The Sheriff calmed the situation by reminding the pair that they both were grown men (there may be some argument on that subject) and surely there was a better way to settle the situation. Well after some discussion a spitting contest was devised. Since tobacco spitting is now included in the Cowboy Olympics over in Tombstone, the Olympic standard distance of 3.375 meters was decided upon as the correct distance to use for the contest. Doc and Black Smith squared off as the first contestants. Black Smith went first and must have sneezed or something during his windup and his plug went off course and landed square in the middle of Doc Clocks new Stetson hat.....Well grownups or not, that was the final straw and Doc started blasting with his pistols, rifle and shotgun. As usual Doc didn't hit much and since no one was injured the Sheriff declared Doc the Winner by default.....

ALIAS	Category	Total Time	Category Winner

Please be with the Range Regulators on the second Saturday for another cowboy shootout.....

In the meantime don't forget to "Take a kid shooting"
