Regulator Gazette

January 1897

Headline: It's Gonna Be A Cold Winter

It's late fall and the Indians on a remote reservation in South Dakota asked their new chief if the coming winter was going to be cold or mild. Since he was a chief in a modern society, he had never been taught the old secrets. When he looked at the sky, he couldn't tell what the winter was going to be like.

Nevertheless, to be on the safe side, he told his tribe that the winter was indeed going to be cold and that the members of the village should collect firewood to be prepared. But, being a practical leader, after several days, he got an idea. He went to the phone booth, called the National Weather Service and asked, "Is the coming winter going to be cold?"

It looks like this winter is going to be quite cold, the meteorologist at the weather service responded. So the chief went back to his people and told them to collect even more firewood in order to be prepared.

A week later, he called the National Weather Service again. "Does it still look like it is going to be a very cold winter?"

"Yes," the man at National Weather Service again replied, "it's going to be a very cold winter."

The chief again went back to his people and ordered them to collect every of scrap of firewood they could find. Two weeks later, the chief called the National Weather Service again. "Are you absolutely sure that the winter is going to be very cold?"

"Absolutely," the man replied. "It's looking more and more like it is going to be one of the coldest winters we've ever seen."

"How can you be so sure?" the chief asked.

The weatherman replied, "The Indians are collecting firewood like crazy."

Remember this story whenever you get advice from a government official!

Be with us on the second Saturday when we'll relive those golden days of yesteryear with another cowboy shoot-em-up....
Till then don't forget to "Take a kid shooting"

COWBOY FAST DRAW MATCH

Howdy all, hope everyone had a safe and Happy New Year. We had a good ole' time ending the year with a BANG!! And thanks to Charlie Horse for the hot apple cider to knock off the chill.

At the end of our six round no X match Castaway Cowboy was ranked #1, followed by Chance Holden, both with only one X.
