Action Pistol Match

We had a beautiful day for action pistol with the cool front and low humidity....I hope there isn't a hurricane behind it.....

The new Backup Gun class was a hit...Especially with me since I won it LOL....Shooting from low gun and shooting from 10 yards really makes it fun...but it's like the old Champion skeet shooter said once upon a time when asked how he did so good...his response was "Well, you've got to try your hardest on every target"
It's easy to lose concentration when you're shooting and the plates are falling.....

Scores went like this....
